

NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE ON BRITISH STUDIES

Bowdoin College

April 19-20, 1968

You are cordially invited to attend the first annual meeting of the New England Conference on British Studies, to be held this year at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine on April 19 and 20.

The program will include:

Friday, April 19

- 1:30-2:15 Registration (Lobby of Moulton Union)
- 2:15-4:30 Presentation of papers (Main Lounge, Moulton Union)
- G. Cragg (Andover-Newton): "The Claims of Rome and the Rights of Canterbury: A Major 17th century Controversy"
- H. Mansfield (Harvard): "Hobbes and the Science of Indirect Government"
- R. Winks (Yale): "A Case Study in 'The Man on the Spot' Theme in British Colonial History"
- 5:00-6:00 Reception and Cocktail Party (Alumni House)
- 6:15 Dinner (Terrace Under, Moulton Union)
Speaker: H. Brown (Bowdoin College)

Saturday, April 20

- 9:15-11:30 Presentation of papers (Main Lounge, Moulton Union)
- S.T. Bindoff (London): "The Early Tudor Section of the History of Parliament"
- D. Roberts (Dartmouth): "Intellectual Development and Social Reform in Early Victorian England"
- F. Cazel (Connecticut): "Political Parties in the Minority of Henry III"
- 11:30 Business Meeting (Main Lounge, Moulton Union)
- 12:00 Buffet Lunch (Terrace Under, Moulton Union)

Information as to hotel/motel accommodations and travel directions are included in separate announcements.